

Sacred Cannabis Healing Ceremony

Saturday, July 13th 4:20 - 11pm / North Boulder

A deeply immersive experience in a safe setting. We use intention, awareness, breath, mind and body to journey within and heal.

This may be for you if...

- * You would like to get unstuck, heal past trauma, shift energetic patterns, and/or gain creative insight to help propel you forward, and live your life to its fullest.
- * You sometimes get anxious, self conscious, or have other negative fear-based thoughts while using Cannabis, and would like to explore, heal, and transcend those thoughts and emotions in a safe and intimate setting with proper guidance.
- * You would like to experience an enchanting evening of magic and connection with fellow journeyers.

 Experienced users AND complete novices are welcome.

Mark Abrams

Cannabis Journey Guide and Ceremonialist

Join Mark as he guides you into developing a deeper connection with yourself, and this sacred and often misunderstood ancient plant teacher.

In his 3rd year guiding Cannabis ceremonies, Mark is a passionate student of the historical and modern spiritual use of Cannabis for inner exploration and healing. Recently completed an intensive psychedelic-harm-reduction certificate program from Medicinal Mindfulness, in Boulder.

Committed to the path of awakening by living life as ceremony, he is a long-time meditator and practitioner of the Kriya Yoga lineage, as taught by Paramahansa Yogananda.

Space is limited to only 12 journeyers.
